SPECIAL MOS CONSIDERATIONS
92M

- 92M is a low density MOS.
- Due to limited positions, NCOs often serve in assignments for lengthy periods. Limited opportunities are authorized for NCOs to serve in the traditional leadership positions
- Due to nature of MOS, Soldiers deployed in operational areas encounter high stress situations
- All Quartermaster MOSs are open to male and female Soldiers; however, DCPC coding of positions precludes assignment of females to certain combat arms units

92Y

- MOSs 92A and 92Y merge at E9 to become MOS 92Z

- All Quartermaster MOSs are open to male and female Soldiers; however, DCPC coding of positions precludes assignment of females to certain combat arms units

- Traditional leadership opportunities are generally located only within Quartermaster organizations

- 92Y will see an increase in authorizations based on Army restructuring directives over the next 12 months. MOS population increases are largest from E1 – E7
